INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Directors of Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2026, and the statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

Except as noted in the following paragraph, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the organization as at March 31, 2026 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many charitable organizations, Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation derives part of its income from the general public in the form of donations and fundraising activities, which by their nature are not susceptible to complete audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of revenue from these sources was limited to an examination of the amounts recorded in the records of the organization. We were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to revenues, excess of revenues over expenditures, assets or net assets for the years ended March 31, 2025 or March 31, 2026. The prior year audit opinion was also modified in respect of this matter.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control.

- ♦ Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- ♦ Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- ♦ Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation was incorporated without share capital on March 20, 2015, under the laws of Ontario. The organization's mission is to enhance the financial sustainability of Chatham Kent Hospice Inc. by working with the community to raise funds, awareness, and understanding to enable compassionate, quality near end of life experiences for the residents of Chatham-Kent. The organization is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act and is exempt from income taxes, provided that certain requirements of the Income Tax Act are met.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The organization applies Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. The significant accounting policies are as follows:

(a) CASH

Cash consists of balances with financial institutions.

(b) INVESTMENTS

The organization has elected to classify all of its equity investments as held-for-trading, and accordingly, they are recorded at fair value. Changes in fair values during the year are included in revenues on the statement of operations with any unrealized gain or loss on the conversion to fair value recorded in other income or expense. Quoted market prices were used to determine the fair value of the equity investments at the year end date.

(c) TANGIBLE CAPITAL ASSETS

Tangible capital assets are recorded at cost. The organization provides for amortization using the straight-line method at rates designed to amortize the cost of the tangible capital assets over their estimated useful lives. The annual amortization rates are as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	5 years
Computer equipment	5 years
Leasehold improvements	5 years

Tangible capital assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in the circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. If the total of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of the asset, an impairment loss is recognized for the excess of the carrying value over the fair value of the asset during the year the impairment occurs.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, continued

(d) INTERNALLY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

Internally restricted funds are established as required at the discretion of the board of directors. Increases or decreases in these funds are made by appropriations to or from operations and, where appropriate, upon approval of the board of directors. The internally restricted funds are not available for purposes other than those described below without the approval of the board of directors.

The sustainability fund is used to hold funding to cover capital upgrades, growth initiatives and unforeseen operational shortfalls for Chatham Kent Hospice Inc., as approved by the board of directors. The organization's goal is to maintain a balance in the sustainability fund between a minimum of 12 months of operating funds and a maximum of 36 months of operating funds.

(e) REVENUE RECOGNITION

The organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenditures are incurred.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Contributions relating to tangible capital assets are credited to deferred capital contributions and are recognized as revenue on the same basis as amortization on the related asset is charged against operations.

Unrestricted interest and investment income is recognized as revenue when earned.

Other income and special event revenues are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

(f) CONTRIBUTED MATERIALS AND SERVICES

Contributions of materials are recognized in the financial statements at fair value at the date of contribution, but only when a fair value can be reasonably estimated, when the materials are used in the normal course of operations, and when the materials would otherwise have been purchased.

A significant number of volunteers contribute their time to the organization each year. Due to the difficulty of determining fair value, contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.

(g) SEGMENTATION OF EXPENSES

The organization's expenses are segregated into fundraising or administrative categories in the supporting notes to the financial statements. See note 14. These segments are identified and segregated on the basis of the activities undertaken by the Chatham-Kent Hospice Foundation and expenses are allocated to these segments according to the amount of time spent in each area.

(h) CLOUD COMPUTING ARRANGEMENTS

The organization applies the simplification approach to account for expenditures in cloud computing arrangements. The expenditures in the arrangements are expensed as incurred. During the year, the organization expensed $10,828, (2025 - $10,433) through operations in the memberships and professional development, and donor relations and recognition expense lines for fees related to cloud computing arrangements.

(i) FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Financial instruments are financial assets or liabilities of the organization where, in general, the organization has the right to receive cash or another financial asset from another party or the organization has the obligation to pay another party cash or other financial assets.

The organization's financial assets consist of cash, short-term investments at fair value and accounts receivable. The organization's financial liabilities consist of accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

The organization initially measures its financial assets and liabilities originated or exchanged in arm's length transactions at fair value. Financial assets and liabilities originated or exchanged in related party transactions, except for those that involve parties whose sole relationship with the organization is in the capacity of management, are initially measured at cost.

The cost of a financial instrument in a related party transaction depends on whether the instrument has repayment terms. If repayment terms exist, the cost is determined using its undiscounted cash flows, excluding interest payments, less any impairment losses previously recognized by the transferor. Otherwise, the cost is determined using the consideration transferred or received by the organization in the transaction.

With the exception of short-term investments at fair value, the financial instruments are subsequently measured at amortized cost and are evaluated for impairment at each statement of financial position date with the write down recorded in excess (deficiency) of revenues over expenditures. Impairment reversals may occur and the asset can be written up to its original cost. Short-term investments at fair value are subsequently measured at their fair value.

(j) USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions, such as the allowance for doubtful accounts, the useful life and amortization of tangible capital assets, certain accruals and deferred revenues, that affect the reported amounts at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenditures during the year. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future. These estimates and assumptions are reviewed periodically and, as adjustments become necessary, they are reported in the periods in which they become known.

3. INVESTMENTS

The organization's sustainability fund is comprised of all investments held by the organization.

Short-term sustainability fund investments at fair market value consist of the following:

	2026	2025

15. COMPARATIVE FIGURES

The financial statements have been reclassified, where applicable, to conform to the presentation used in the current year. The changes do not affect prior year earnings.

16. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Transactions in financial instruments may result in an organization assuming or transferring to another party one or more of the financial risks described below. The required disclosures provide information that assists users of financial statements in assessing the extent of risk related to financial instruments. In management's opinion, there have been no changes to the organization's risks during the year.

(a) MARKET RISK

Market risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices, whether the factors are specific to the instrument or all instruments traded in the market. These risks are generally outside the control of the organization. In management's opinion, the organization is not exposed to significant market risk.

16. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS, continued

(b) CREDIT RISK

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a transaction will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The organization is exposed to credit risk in the event of non-payment by parties for their accounts receivable. The organization reduces its exposure to credit risk by creating an allowance for doubtful accounts when applicable. In the opinion of management, the credit risk exposure to the organization is low and is not material.

(c) CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Concentration risk is the risk that a party has more than ten percent of the total accounts receivable balance and thus there is a higher risk to the organization in the event of a default by one of these parties. Concentrations of credit risk relates to groups of counterparties that have similar economic or industry characteristics that cause their ability to meet contractual obligations to be similarly affected by changes in economic or other conditions.
